

the same amount that by their valuation they were required to pay in the year 1842.

WILLIAM SHEW,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

MASON C. DARLING,

President of the Council.

APPROVED, February 8, 1847.

HENRY DODGE.

AN ACT

To amend an act entitled "an act to incorporate the village of Prairieville, and for other purposes."

Be it enacted by the Council and House of Representatives of the Territory of Wisconsin:

SECTION 1. In all cases in relation to which, by the provisions of said act, the trustees have power to enact or pass ordinances, or bye-laws, in relation to any subject, they may prescribe a penalty for the violation of such ordinance or bye-law, not exceeding fifty dollars, for any one offence in the violation or non observance thereof, and may also provide that in default of payment of any judgment rendered for such violation or non observance, the offender shall be imprisoned for such term as they may by such ordinance direct, not exceeding thirty days, for which purpose the said village shall have the use of the jail of the county of Waukesha, for the imprisonment of any person liable to be imprisoned; and all persons committed to said jail by the marshal, or any other officer, shall be under the charge of the sheriff of said county:

Penalty for violation of ordinance.

Provided, said village shall pay the expense of keeping and maintaining such person.

SEC. 2. That the corporate name of the village of Prairieville, in the county of Waukesha, be, and the same is hereby changed to that of Waukesha, and by that name the said village shall be hereafter known and designated. Changing corporate name.

SEC. 3. That the name of the town of Prairieville, in the county of Waukesha, be, and the same is hereby changed to Waukesha, and by that name shall be hereafter known and designated. Changing name of town.

WILLIAM SHEW,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

MASON C. DARLING,

President of the Council.

APPROVED February 8, 1847.

HENRY DODGE.

AN ACT

To establish a highway in the town of Prairie du Chien, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Council and House of Representatives of the Territory of Wisconsin:

SECTION 1. That the embanked road and bridge lately constructed between those parts of the town of Prairie du Chien, in the county of Crawford, known as the old French village and St. Fiole, be, and is hereby declared to be a public highway and the supervisors of the road districts in which said highway is situated, is hereby directed to work the said road, and keep the same in repair in the same manner as other highways in their district. A certain road declared highway.